If, however, the informal process fails to satisfy the Bargaining Unit Member or the Union, a grievance shall be processed as follows:

(a) Step 1:

The grievant or the Union shall present the grievance in writing to the Executive Director within fifteen (15) days of the occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance, or within (15) days of the knowledge of the event, whichever is later, specifying the article and clause alleged to have been violated and stating the remedy sought. The Executive Director shall arrange for a meeting to take place within five (5) days after receipt of the grievance. The Executive Director, their representative, the Union's representative and the grievant may be present at the meeting. The Executive Director shall provide a written answer to the grievant and the Union within ten (10) days after the scheduled meeting.

(b) Step 2:

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1, the grievant or the Union may refer the grievance to the Management Council within ten (10) days after the receipt of the Step 1 answer. The Council will hear the grievance at the next regularly scheduled meeting. Within ten (10) days after the hearing, the Council shall give its written response to the grievant and Union.

(c) Step 3:

If the Union is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at Step 2, it may submit the grievance to final and binding arbitration within thirty (30) days of the Step 2 response. If the parties are unable to agree on a single Arbitrator within seven (7) days, the Union shall request a panel of seven (7) Arbitrators from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service ("FMCS"). The winner of a coin toss shall determine who strikes the first Arbitrator. The parties shall thereafter alternately strike names until one (1) name remains, who shall then automatically become the chosen Arbitrator for the grievance. Notice of the selection of the Arbitrator shall be given to the Arbitrator, and FMCS.

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties. The parties shall each be responsible for the costs of their own representation. If only one (1) party requests a transcript, that party shall bear the costs of the transcript. If both parties request a copy of the transcript, the cost of transcripts shall be equally divided by the parties.

The arbitrator shall be authorized to fashion an appropriate remedy. The Arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, delete from, or modify the terms of this Agreement. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union, and the Bargaining Unit Member.

Section 6.4 – Union Participation

The Council acknowledges the right of any representative to be present at any step of the grievance procedure. No employee shall be required to discuss any grievance if the Union representative is not present if one is requested. In any instance where the Union is not representing the grievant, the Executive Director or Management Council receiving the formal grievance shall notify the Union of the grievance meeting; action taken; and any resolution of the complaint. The Union may appeal any decision of the Executive Director or Management Council.

Section 6.5 – Failure to Act

Failure of an employee or the Union to act on any grievance within the prescribed time limits will bar any further appeal. If the Employer or its designee fails to respond to a grievance within the prescribed time limit, the grievance will proceed to the next step. Time limits may be extended by mutual consent.

Section 6.6 – Bypass to Arbitration

The Parties may agree in writing to submit a grievance directly to arbitration without proceeding through Steps 1 and 2.

Section 6.7 – Released Time

Any investigation or other handling or processing of any grievance by the grievant or the Union shall be conducted so as to result in no interference with, or interruption whatsoever of, the instructional program or the related work activities of the grievant or of the District's employees. Meetings held under this procedure shall be conducted at a mutually agreeable time. If no time is mutually agreeable to the parties, the grievance shall be allowed to proceed to the next step.

Section 6.8 – Attendance at Hearing

"If and when an arbitration hearing is scheduled during a bargaining unit member's scheduled workday, the grievant and any necessary witnesses shall be released to attend the hearing without loss of pay."

Section 6.9 – Grievance Withdrawal

ARTICLE VII – PERSONNEL FILES

The Employer may keep a separate central personnel file where necessary under any applicable law, Employer policy, or this agreement.

Section 7.2 – Inspection
